A BIG BIG DROP

THIS BOOK BELONGS TO

On a hot summer's day, little Bibi is sitting and talking with another cloud droplet, Nunu.

"Everything looks so interesting from up here!" said Bibi.

The trees look like

The buildings look like little grey boxes!

"My daddy also says there are people, animals and trees down there!" exclaimed Bibi.

As the day moves on, their friend Mr Sun rises higher and higher to the sky.

The background is a light blue sky with several white, fluffy clouds. There are also several thin, white, curved lines scattered across the sky, representing wind or air currents. The text is centered in the upper half of the image.

And then Mr. Wind came and visited Bibi and Nunu.

"It is getting cold!" Bibi and Nunu are shivering.

The background of the image is a light blue sky with several white, fluffy clouds. In the lower half of the image, there are several white raindrops falling downwards. The text is centered in the middle of the image.

Mr. Wind keeps blowing and blowing, until Bibi
and Nunu started falling

WHOOSH!

WEEEEEE!

They fell past clouds!

They fell past birds!

They fell past very tall buildings!

Down

Down

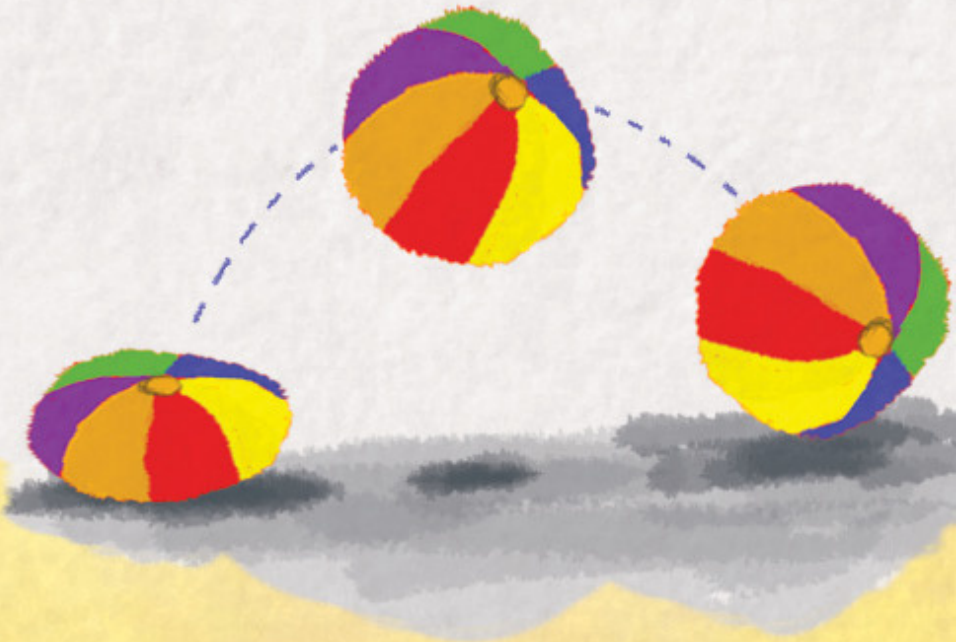

Down they go!

"Look at that, Bibi. What is it?"
asked Nunu.

"Hmm, I see red, yellow, orange, purple, blue and green," said Bibi.

"Is it a bouncy ball?" asked Nunu.

"Is it a rainbow?" asked Bibi.

Bibi and Nunu are getting
strange object.

SWOOSH!

They slid down the big, bouncy

"It is an umbrella!" shouted Bibi and Nunu happily.
