

UNDER THE SEA

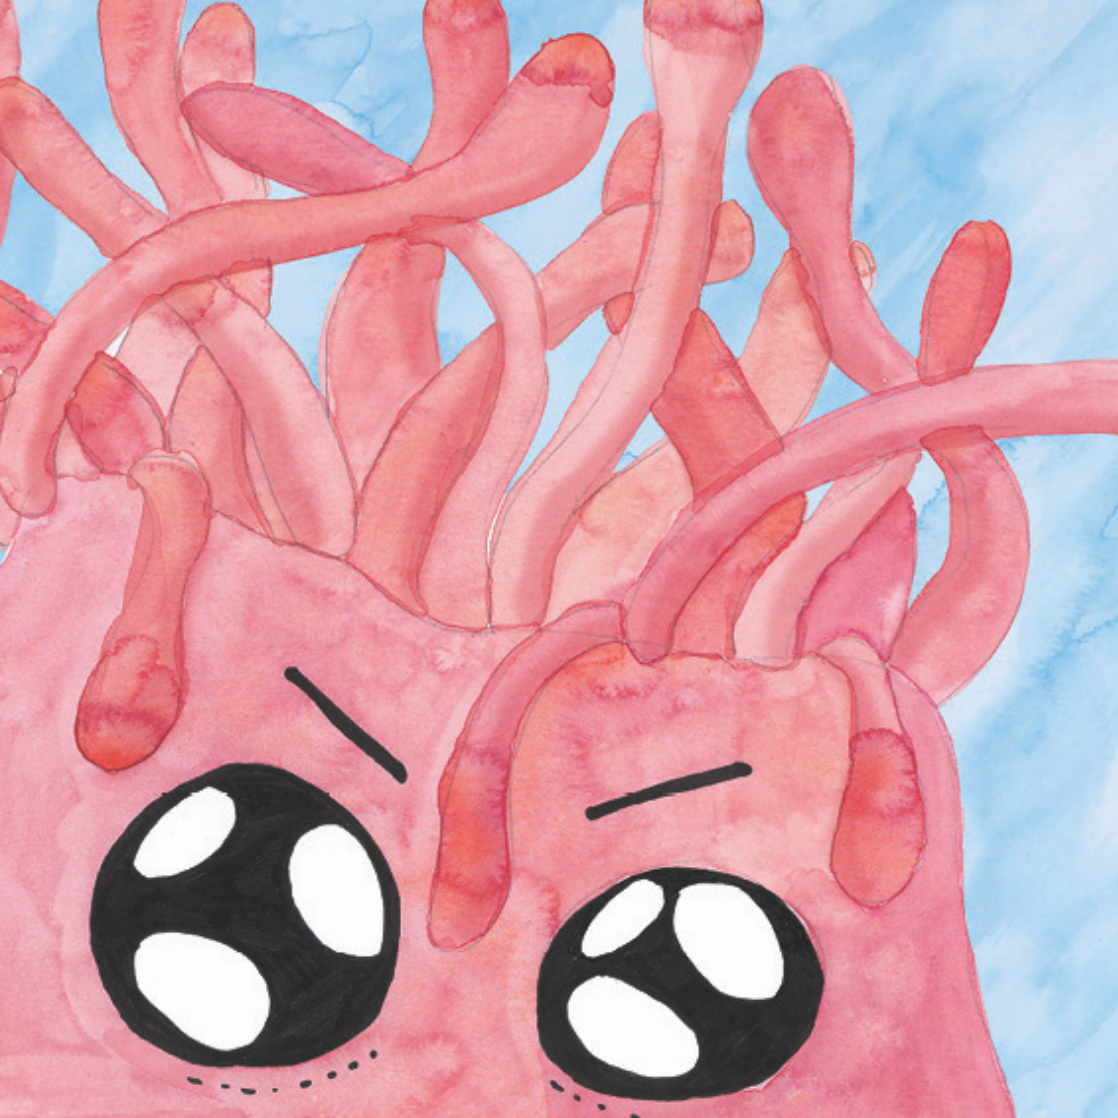

THIS BOOK BELONGS TO

The background is a watercolor-style illustration of a blue ocean. The blue is layered with various shades, from light to medium, creating a sense of depth and movement. In the bottom right corner, there is a brown, textured shape representing a rock or a piece of seabed. The overall style is soft and artistic.

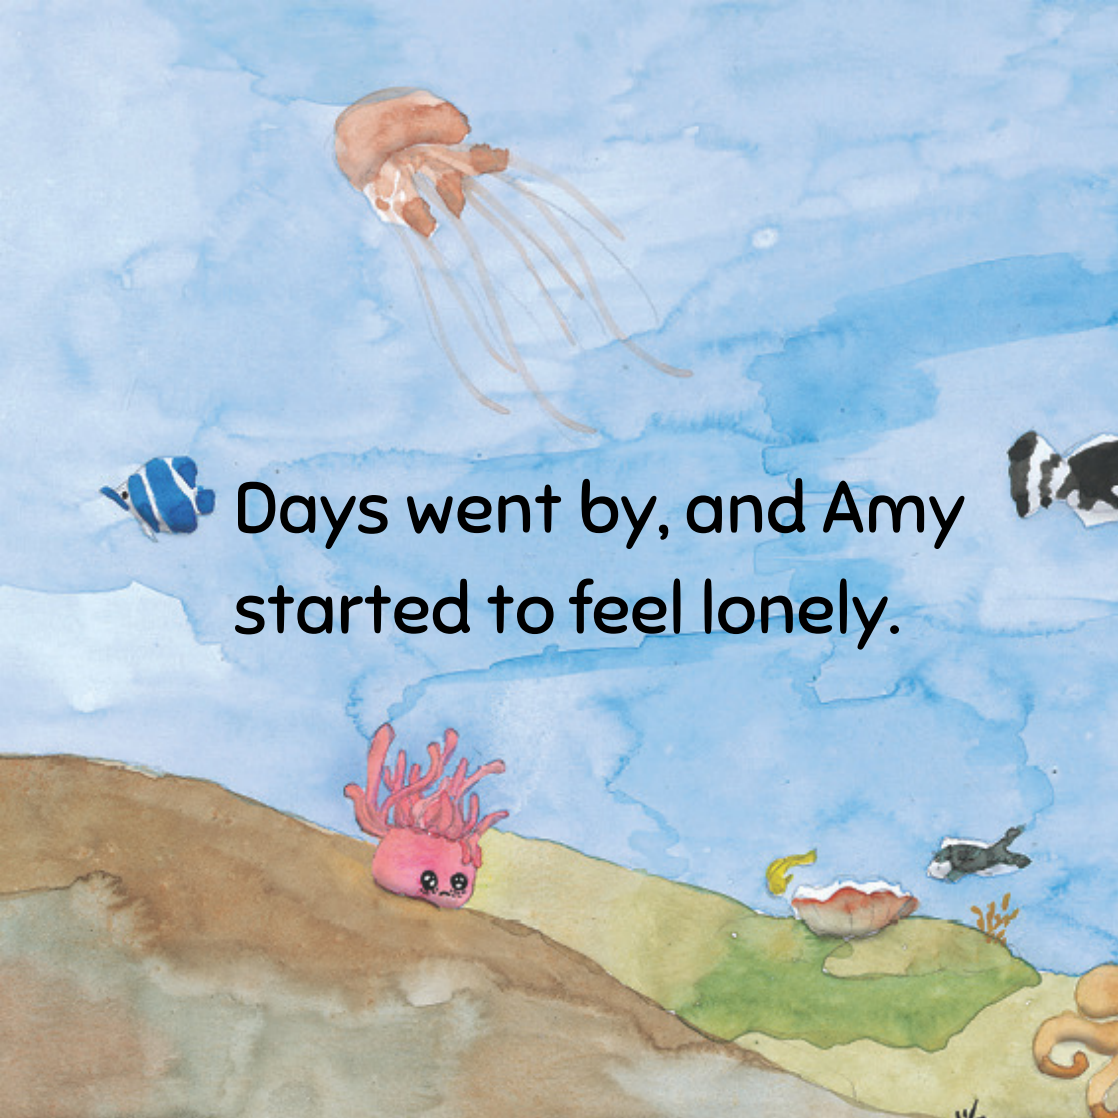

Amy the Sea Anemone lives deep down the ocean. All day long, she stays on a piece of slippery rock.

When she needs to eat,
she catches fish with long, long tentacles!

Days went by, and Amy started to feel lonely.

"I don't have fins like the fish."

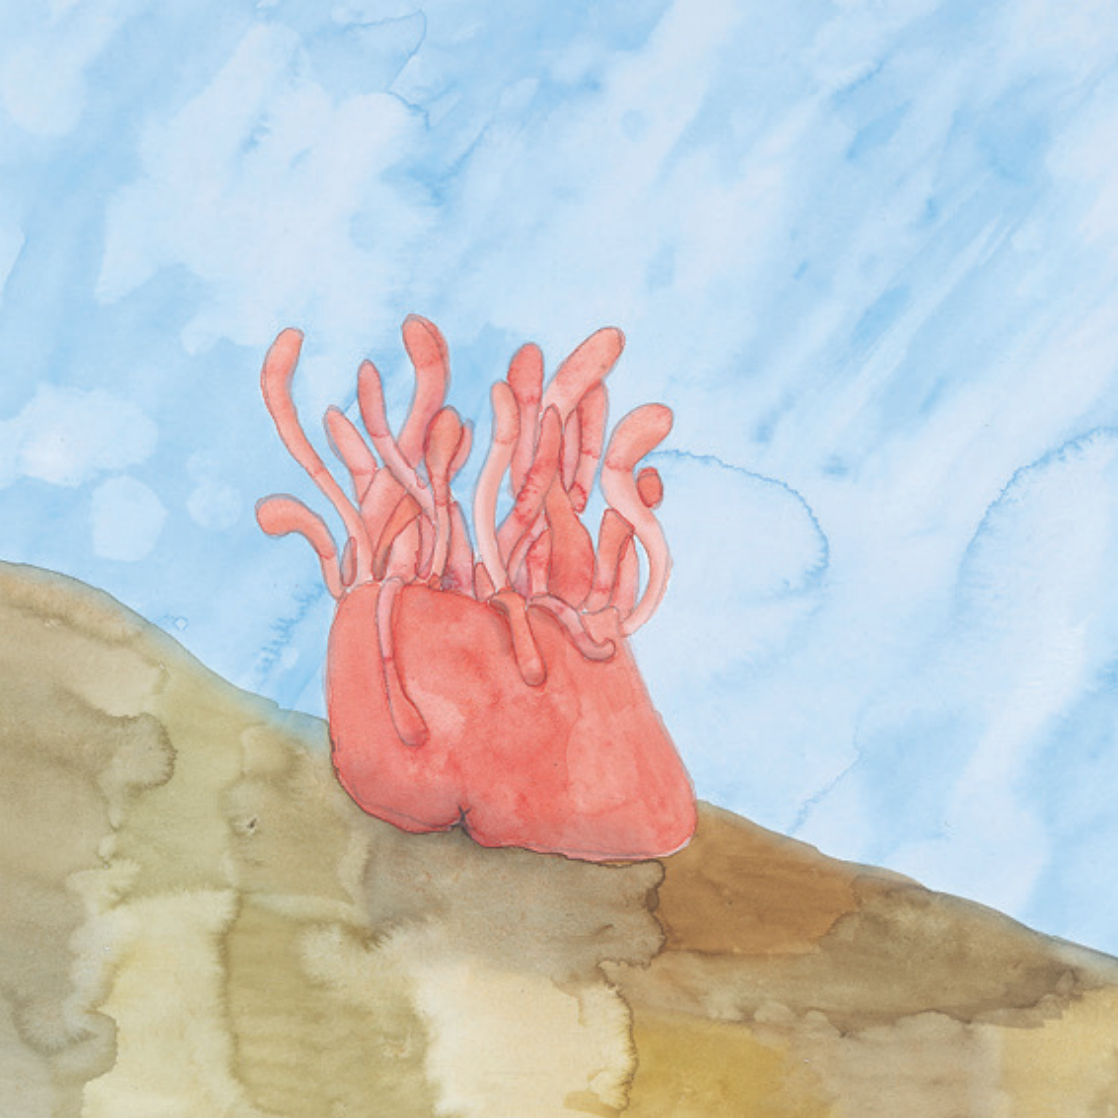

"I don't have feet like the shrimp."

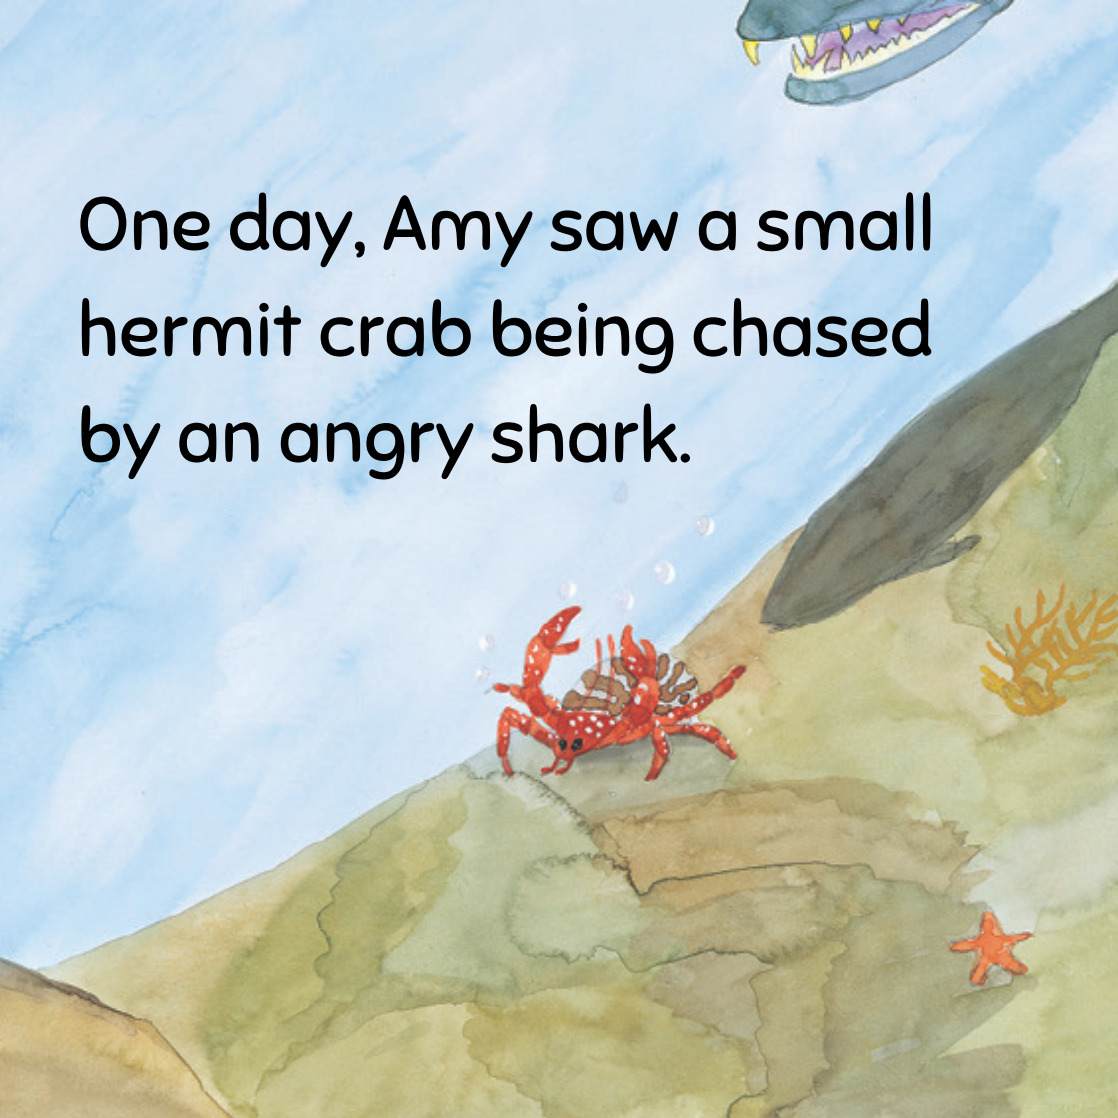

"I can't go wherever I want to."
Amy thought to herself.

One day, Amy saw a small hermit crab being chased by an angry shark.

"Stop!" Amy shouted
to the shark bravely.

After a while, the shark swam away.

"Am I safe now?" asked the little hermit crab.

"Yes you are. You can come out now!" Amy said.

"What is your name?"

Amy asked.

"My name is Herman. Nice to meet you!" said Herman the hermit crab.

"Nice to meet you too!" said Amy.

"Let's be friends!" said Herman. "Do you want to come with me?"

Herman gently picked Amy up and put her on his hard shell.

"Let's go on an adventure
together!" shouted
Herman and Amy happily.

Together, Herman and Amy explored the big ocean.

They had lots and lots of fun!

But most importantly,
Amy never felt lonely
again.
