

Sleepy
mr SLOTH

THIS BOOK BELONGS TO

One day, Mr Sloth came to visit. He said:

I am so sleepy! I better find a nice branch for a bed!

Yawn!

Yawn!

Yawn!

I am good at climbing.

I am good at swinging.

But sleeping is my favourite,
favourite thing!

This branch looks cozy. I think I will sleep here.

Don't you think it's a splendid spot?

Oh no, Mr Sloth! A giraffe is eating here!

He might think nibble on you by mistake!

Ow!

Let's find another branch.
This branch looks lovely! I think I will sleep here.

Don't you think it's a
splendid spot?

Oh no, Mr Sloth! There are so many bees here!

You'll never sleep well with bees everywhere!

Let's find another branch.
This branch looks warm! I think I will sleep here.

Don't you think it's a
splendid spot?

Oh no, Mr Sloth! A snake is resting here!

We should leave the poor
snake alone.

Ssssss!

Ssssss!

Sssss!

Sssss!

Let's find another branch.
This branch looks safe! I think I will sleep here.

Don't you think it's a
splendid spot?

Oh no, Mr Sloth! A bird is squawking over there!

You'll never get sleep with all that noise in the air!

Haw-haw!

Haw!
Haw!

Haw-haw!

"Try climbing one more branch, Mr Sloth!" all the other animals said.

And there it is! A splendid branch with a splendid view!

The giraffe and the snake,
the bird and the bees,

were so happy to have Mr
Sloth in their tree!
